...decided to move to Texas. Mollie went with them... about 15 miles to the nearest store. She found her spool of thread and paid a $5.00 gold piece for it.

After the war was over Joseph went to Texas. It was in Hardin Co., Texas that their first child, Allen Daniel, was born March 12, 1867. After conditions had improved in the southern states Joe moved his family to Benton Co., Arkansas where their first daughter, Margaret Catherine Nora (named for both of her grandmothers), was born August 2, 1869. It was also in Benton Co., Arkansas that their third child, Harley Joseph, was born July 21, 1871. Their fourth child Fannie Lois was born September 17, 1874 in Tennessee. Their fifth child George William was born November 17, 1876 in Benton Co., Arkansas. After 1876 they moved to McDonald Co., Missouri where their sixth child John Franklin was born November 17, 1878. Their last child Ida Lela Gertrude was born January 13, 1882 in South West City, McDonald Co., Missouri.

Joe was a schoolteacher. Mildred Burris Swanson a granddaughter of Isaac Daniel STEPHENS the younger brother of Joseph STEPHENS told of one of the schools Joe taught at. "Joe went to this school where no teacher had been able to last. He went in with a gun strapped to him and he unstrapped it and laid it on the desk and he said something like 'Now, I'm going to teach this school!' and he taught in it until 1886 when news from friends who had moved to Idaho enticed them to sell it."
