SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

IN THE fall of 1933, timid little freshmen trooped merrily up the steps of old G. H. S. to begin their first year in our high school. During this first year only a few activities were carried on—the Halloween party being the greatest success. Freshmen girls won the interclass basketball tournament. Class officers: President, John Battan; Vice President, Maxine Elder; Secretary, Lois Gregory; Treasurer, Viola Andrews; Reporter, Kenneth Harding; Class Adviser, Miss Ebel.

As Sophomores the class of '37 became recognized as future leaders at Grangeville High School. The girls again won interclass basketball honors. Class officers: President, Warren Parks; Vice President, Becky Brandborg; Secretary, Robert Holman; Treasurer, Viola Andrews; Reporter, Mary Marshall; Class Adviser, Miss Wedin.

The Junior class was well represented in all school activities. The Junior Carnival was one of the most successful ever held. The Junior Promenade and the Junior-Senior banquet were occasions to be remembered. Class officers: President, Archie Earp; Vice President, Mary Marshall; Secretary, Viola Andrews; Treasurer, Nettie Alice Overman; Class Adviser, Miss Wedin.

The 1937 graduating class has helped to bring many honors to the school. Members of the class have been outstanding in such activities as class plays, operettas, orchestra, band, basketball, football, track, annual staff, Girls' League, Home Economics Club, Tri-G and "G" Clubs. Through the support of some of the Seniors both Girls' and Boys' "G" Clubs were organized. We are also well represented scholastically. Maxine Elder and Warren Parks were tied for honors with a straight A average throughout high school. Class Officers: President, Raymond Holman; Vice President, Robert Holman; Secretary, Viola Andrews; Treasurer, Nettie Alice Overman; Reporter, Lola Snodgrass; Class Adviser, Miss Ebel.

THE ANNUAL class picnic was the first of the series of extracurricular activities sponsored by the Juniors. This was followed by one of the most successful and clever Junior carnivals and vaudeville shows in the history of this school.

The Seniors invited the Juniors on a coasting and sleighing party at Baker's Hill, and after returning to town all went to the Kandy Kitchen for chili.

Honors were also bestowed upon the class by the presentation of the comedy drama "Big Brother" and by the winning of the boys' interclass basketball tournament.

The last social activities of the year were the Junior Prom on April 9, a gala affair in an old-fashioned garden, and the Junior-Senior Banquet April 17.

1936 TRACK

The Grangeville track team, after winning the Nezperce invitational meet, took third place in the Lewiston meet. In the district meet held at Moscow, Grangeville took fourth place. George Bell and Louis Bunting earned the right to enter the state meet held in Boise at the end of the season.

Letter winners are as follows: George Bell, Louis Bunting, Don Harris, Floyd Schenck, Archie Earp, Jean Jackson, Arley Haener, Pershing Altman, Neil Martin, and Bud Doane.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

First Row: Don Harris; Jim Green; Bud Doane; George Bell; Archie Earp.
Second Row: Emery D. Doane, Superintendent of Schools; Merlin Reynolds, Manager; Bill Eimers; Kay Thurman; Paul Cone; Arthur D. Jones, Coach.

THE Grangeville basketball team went through the scheduled season undefeated, with 17 straight victories. This included three wins over our traditional rival, Cottonwood, and two wins over Craigmont, the leader of the northern division of the prairie conference. No previous record of the Grangeville High School is known to have equaled this one.

In an early season tournament in which the teams of the southern division of the prairie conference participated, the Grangeville Bulldogs emerged victorious, with Kooskia runner-up. Archie Earp, George Bell, and Don Harris were placed on the first all-tournament team, and Bud Doane was placed on the second team.

LEWISTON TOURNAMENT

The team, after winning their opening game from Kendrick with the score of 25 to 11 and defeating Elk River 41 to 19, dropped their next two games and were eliminated from the tournament. Bud Doane was placed on the first all-district team, and Archie Earp was placed on the second all-district team. Archie Earp also was elected the most inspirational player on the team during tournament play.

Letter winners are as follows: George Bell, Don Harris (Captain), Bud Doane, Archie Earp, Paul Cone, Jim Green, Kay Thurman, and Bill Eimers.

The team owes the greater part of its success to Coach Arthur D. Jones, who with his persistent work and concentrated efforts has been able to whip into shape teams which have won the conference championship for the last three years.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

AS A RESULT of excellent coaching by Mr. Doane and good training and co-operation on the part of the players, the Grangeville team has won sixty-three out of seventy-one games played in the last six years, tying two and losing six. Eleven girls earned their letters. The services of Miss Ebrel, Chaperon, and Lucille Evans, Manager, were sincerely appreciated by the girls. Mary Fran Marshall, Maxine Elder, and Viola Andrews will be lost by graduation.

SENIOR PLAY SUMMARY

Mystery at Midnight, a Mystery Comedy in Three Acts, December 5.

The mystery centered around Mrs. Wentworth (Maxine Dye) and Barbara Cory (Irene Brotnov). Rathburne Wentworth (Merlin Reynolds), Alma Cory (Cloella May Brown) and Cloyd Parker (Ted Price) tried to extort money from Mrs. Wentworth. When the mystery is unraveled, Barbara Cory learns that she is Mrs. Wentworth's daughter. The love interest is supplied by Dick Lawrence (Pershing Altman) and Barbara Cory, and by Letty Flanders (Betty June Mundt) and Oscar Jensen (Joe Kaschmitter). The humor was supplied by Mary Francis Marshall as Engeline Washington; and by her lesser half, Rasmus Washington (Clifford Barnett).

JUNIOR PLAY SUMMARY

Big Brother, a Comedy Drama in Three Acts, February 25.

Mrs. Crewe, played by Muriel Jones, was the mother of two grown sons. Big Brother John (Gene Le Boeuf) and Lyle (Emery Doane, Jr.) had taken their mother's advice in all things until romance entered their lives, and then it was everyone for himself. Lyle's elopement with Alice (Eloise Snodgrass) displeases his mother; and timid John accepts Janet (Kathryn Ayers) after she boldly proposed to him. Hortense Morton (Pat Eimers), the girl next door, greatly enjoys the English humor furnished by Sydney Chalmers (Gilbert Meyers). When Mr. Morton (Robert Holt) accuses Lyle of theft, Big Brother John, although innocent, takes the blame. In the end, Mr. Morton finds that a bookkeeper in the office stole the money.

SOPHOMORE PLAY SUMMARY

Look Who's Here, a Farce Comedy in Three Acts, April 20

Lyman and Estelle Winchell (Kay Thurman and Peggy Cummings) were a young married couple whose only income was an allowance given them by his Aunt Alice (Margaret Reynolds), who believes him to be single. As she was very much against marriage, she told him that if ever he married she would discontinue his allowance. Complications developed when Aunt Alice, Tommy, Irene (Rita Hutchens), and her two friends (Verna Harmon and Leona Case) all arrive for a visit on the same day. Her friends happen to be Lyman's and Tommy's fiancées. During the visit Estelle is passed off as Tommy's wife. In the end Aunt Alice finds out the truth, which results in her becoming very "matrimonial minded."

SOCIETY

GIRLS' LEAGUE CONVENTION

The Grangeville High School Girls' League was host to many delegates from surrounding towns for the Sectional Conference of the Tri-State Girls' League on November 21. Indians were chosen as the theme of the conference; and the discussion groups, which were conducted by leaders from various schools, and the programs conformed to the theme.

CO-ED PROM

Hi Zeke! Hiyah Zebe! Remember? Of course, it was at the Co-ed Prom December 16. Farmerettes mingled with beautiful society debs and liked it. Prizes were awarded for the most original and best dressed couples.

TRI-G FORMAL

Lose your heart? If you did, it could undoubtedly have been found at the Tri-G Formal, February 6. Dancers glided around beneath a ceiling of hearts, and found their places at individual tables. Those who attended will long remember this as one of the better Tri-G Formals.

PEP DANCES

Pep dances given in the old gym and sponsored by the Tri-G Girls proved to be a lot of fun.

TEA-STYLE SHOW

The Easter Silver Tea and Style Show sponsored by the Girls' League was held March 27. A ceiling of pastel streamers was in accord with the Easter season. Various models portrayed the average women's attire from morning until time for the most formal occasion. The tea and style show was one of the most successful affairs promoted by the Girls' League.

JUNIOR PROM

Maybe she was an old-fashioned girl, but she was just the girl to take to the Junior Prom, which was held April 9 in the new gym. A quaint picket fence surrounded the floor, and the orchestra played enchanting tunes from a porch, while the stars twinkled merrily in the sky above. Punch was served from an old-fashioned well in the corner.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Juniors gave their last tribute to the Seniors in the form of a banquet, held in the Home Economics Room April 17. The theme of the banquet was sailing, and after the speeches had been given by the captain and various members of the crew, the Juniors bid the Seniors Bon Voyage.

TRI-G INITIATION AND FORMAL BANQUET

For the first time in the history of Tri-G, the old members gave a Formal banquet in honor of their initiates. The banquet was held April 22 in the Imperial Hotel, immediately following the initiation. Mary Frances Marshall acted as toastmistress, and addresses of welcome were given by several of the old members.
