

Seniors Prepare for Departure

The dates May 29 and 30 host Class Night and Graduation Exercises for the 96 seniors at Grangeville High School.

Class Night activities include four entertainment selections featuring soloist Donna Flood, senior members of the stage band, a duet by Melani Suhr and Marsha Lucas singing "Sometimes" and a group of seven who sing "Our Last Song Together."

Accompanying the musical selections will be the Class History, Class Prophecy, and the Class Will to be read by Joel Hooper and Susie Owens, Mike Curnes and Taunia Thompson, and Mike Stolley and Tammy Hausladen, respectfully.

Class Night will be traditionally decorated by the senior class whereas commencement is decorated by the juniors. The Class Colors are burgandy and creme and the Class Flowers are crysanthemums, roses and carnations.

The selected speaker for graduation is Richard Gibb, president of the University of Idaho, with Father Falk to deliver the Invocation.

A dance will follow graduation at the Elk's with Sleeper as the band and a cost of $2.

We've still got a couple of years to go before we're ready for the moon.

THANKS...

As co-editor of the Informer I want to give special thanks to our advisor, Mrs. Frei. This past year has been filled with many projects and deadlines. Although very few, if any, of our deadlines were met, I wish to thank our advisor for all she has done in helping us try to keep on schedule. For the past year, the Informer staff has made no great contributions to the world of newspaper writing, and it was thought that the staff would tie with one other class for a very special record. The record being --the fewest number of Informer editions to be printed in a school year.

With this edition, the publications class betters that record by only one edition.

Apologies are in order to all those people who wait with great patience for the next edition which was usually late, and we also apologize for all the trouble, pain, agony, etc... we must have caused our advisor in the past year, and hope that she will look upon this year with only the memories of the few deadlines that were met.

Nikki Pottala and the Informer Staff

DEAR OLD SCHOOL

Dear old school, though it seems
We leave with eagerness
To meet fulfillment of our dreams-
The future to possess-
You are an everlasting part
Of every mind, of every heart.
We would not now turn back. . .and yet,
The trials and triumphs, smiles and tears,
The memories gathered through the years
We never will forget.
