EDITORIAL WELCOME

Welcome to the tourney everyone!

This year we are trying a new idea for tournament programs. We hope you enjoy them. We thought you might be interested in reading some of the news of Grangeville High and a few of the jokes we have inserted for your enjoyment.

It's really "swell" to see such a wonderful turnout at these tournament games. We're only sorry that each team cannot participate in the District Tournament in Lewiston, as we know that this is the heartfilled desire of each.

We know that good sportsmanship will prevail throughout this tournament. Remember it sometimes takes a better man to lose a game that it takes to win one!

Band Says, "Thank You!"

The new band uniforms are here! Yes, they've arrived and they are being issued out to the anxiously awaiting band members. Soon the band will be giving a concert to show them off to everyone and especially to those who were so generous in donating to the band uniform fund. Through the great interest shown by the community, such an early purchase of the uniforms was made possible.

The concert, which is free, by the way, will be held in the new gym February 27. Maybe the uniforms will boost the players morale so much that they will perform as they have never before.

Here are some of the selections they will play: "Early California" will be a "gen-you-wine" western including some of the old ballads that the lonsome cowpoke sang. "Mother Goose Jumps" is a jazzed-up arrangement of the nursery (Continued on page two)

On behalf of Grangeville High School the Informer Staff wishes to welcome all visitors here for the tournament.

Schools taking part in the tourney are Cragmont, Nezperce, Cottonwood, Greencreek and Ferdinand. No. 1 game will be between Cragmont and Nezperce, starting at 7:30 p.m. Monday; No. 2 game following, between Cottonwood and Greencreek, and Ferdinand drew a bye to play the winner of No. 2 game Tuesday evening.

Ed Williams, Lewiston, and Richard Powaukee, Lapwai, have been named tournament officials; Robert Bunting, announcer; Sidney Miller, scorekeeper; Richard Hagen, timer. Ticket sellers and takers will be members of the Grangeville Lions Club.

There will be no trophies given this year at the tournament but the sportsmanship award will be the game ball.

The various service clubs and organizations of Grangeville are at the service of the tournament visitors with concessions. These organizations are also responsible for the drawings of the mascots of the participating schools.

For service in Grangeville check with the advertisements in this publication.

Best luck to the teams!

Bulldogs Drop Cottonwood 40-37

Playing host to the Cottonwood Mustangs who had handed the Bulldogs one of their three defeats the Bulldogs won a close 40-37 contest.

The Bulldogs started the scoring and by half time held a 27-17 lead. Holding the lead they made the Mustangs come after them. Controlling the ball throughout the last frame the Bulldogs came out on top 40-37.

High scorer for Cottonwood was Schultz with 17 counters.

Letters to Editor—

Dear Editor:

What is your opinion on recreation for youth?

There was a youth center tried here in Grangeville some years ago, but it failed to work out.

Some of the organizations give dances for high school, but some of the students don't dance. There is the bowling alley, but that is occupied by bowling leagues, so the students are crowded out—leaving the picture shows. They cost too much money and you can't go every night.

I think there is some answer for the students need of amusement and recreation besides these few things. Other towns are working out recreation for their young folks, why can't we? It takes help from the townspeople and cooperation from the kids, but it's well worth it.

I would like to see what other's opinions are on this matter.

Signed,

A Curious Junior.

Inquiring Reporter

"Do you think gambling should be legalized in the State of Idaho?" (The gambling issue is one that is now confronting our legislature.)

Keren Jordan: No, because it influences young people to go wrong.

Glenn J.: Yes because it isn't legalized people will gamble anyway.

Jim Y.: No, because people who can't afford to gamble, gamble while their families go hungry.

Ann Schwarz: I don't know anything about it.

Don. K.: Yes, because I like to get in a poker game once in a while.

Bill W.: No, because there is too much gambling already, and gambling leads to crime.

Marlene W.: No, because it just doesn't seem right.

Jack M.: Yes because he could make a lot of loot. (If he was good.)

Don De.: Yes because taxes placed on gambling devices are a great help to the State.

Joan Moore: No, not the way the girls gamble at slumber parties.

Tom E.: Yes, because they will go someplace where it is legal and then the State will lose money.

Band Says, "Thank You!"

rhymes. There will be "The Footlifter", a song to which the band frequently marches and John Phillip Sousa's, "Stars and Stripes Forever", which is guaranteed to send chills down your spine. There is also "Gypsy Guitars" and "Uncle Tom's Cabin", a portrayal of Southern life with Uncle Tom, Little Eva and Simon Legree, all included. Shanron Rupe, bouncy cheerleader of G.H.S., calms down long enough to play a beautiful solo on her French Horn in "Afternoon of a Fawn." The trumpets have their chance to shine in "Town Hall Overture."

There is one word to describe the new band uniforms—that is, "sharp". They are very military in appearance, yet they have enough color to lean toward the flashy side. The hat has a black visor with a royal blue top and a liberty gray trim around the edge. The band around the hat is gray with silver oak leaves for the emblem. This is what is known as the pershing style of hat. The coats are royal blue. They have four pockets, each trimmed with gray and one silver button. There are double V type gray stripes on each sleeve. Eight or nine silver buttons line the front of the coat and the shoulderstraps are trimmed in gray, each with a silver button. Over the left sleeve is a gray citation cord. The shoulder patch has Grangeville High School Band, Grangeville, Idaho, written in a circle around it, with a music lyre in the center. The pants are in contrast with the coat. They are liberty gray with blue stripes down the sides and also a silver stripe. The band members will wear white shirts with royal blue four-in-hand ties. Dark stockings and black shoes will look good both in the concerts or on the march.

The band has worked hard to put on a successful program. Let's have a big crowd. Come see how the band has improved this year and get a chance to see their new outfits!

ANNUAL STAFF CHATTER

The classes are somewhat back to normal again after the Annual Staff picture taking is over. The siege disrupted the whole schedule during the latter half of the week. Those of you celebrities who dislike posing may now rest assured that until spring you will have to do little if any of it. The pictures that are taken will be caught without any intentional poses.

It seems to be the custom in this school to make the snapshot editor beg for pictures up until the deadline every year. Things are going as usual again this year but remember; the snapshot editor Karen Jordan needs your support in helping to create an interesting snap section. Let's all help to add something that we can remember our old Alma Mater for in our declining years. If you do this you also might become the lucky winner of that supper colossal Blue Camas year book

KNOW YOUR TEACHER

He is about 6 ft. tall; has black hair and a very pleasing smile. (Some of the former students are wishing they were back in school.) Age? Neither too young or too old. Wears dark rimmed glasses, has a lovely wife and a cute little girl. Now you must know who it is! You're not sure? Well as a last hint, he has that constant habit of keeping time with his hand. That's right! It is no other than that long suffering conductor of Agony Hall—Mr. Calvin (Cub) Lyon.

NO MORE GOVERNMENT

If you see the seniors running around with smiles and a relieved look on all their faces, don't be alarmed. Government class is over!

In order to keep the students out of mischief the teachers racked their brains and came out with a solution—the mighty (?) seniors may have a choice: Journalism, Advanced Speech, and Informal discussion of current American problems. (What a choice!) Mr. Bunting is instructing Journalism and Discussion, with Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Bunting teaching Advanced Speech.

Journalism students are learning the value of good journalistic practices and the techniques of journalism, while debators and discussion groups are learning and discussing American and world problems. Of course there is always an odd one one in every group, Carol Sue Ailor is taking teaching experience.

G.A.A. Plans Sweetheart Ball

Girls! Have you got your date for the G.A.A. dance? If not—Let's not be shy and get those dates!!!

Is that cute boy who sits ahead of you in English friendly but a little shy? Well, if you are dying for a date with him but think he won't ask you because he is so shy, you ask him—to the G.A.A. dance. (Actually, I have yet to see a shy boy in Grangeville High.)

Does that strong, silent, handsome (with a crooked nose) football hero even know that you exist? Well, let him know—ask him to the G.A.A. dance.

For you gals who are going steady, inform your "Big Moment" that he is going to the G.A.A. dance.

The big affair is scheduled for March 13, at 7:30 in the old gym. The proper dress for the occasion is "glad rags" (nice dresses) and "monkey outfits" (suits). Since this is to be a Sweetheart Ball, some lucky G.A.A. girl will be chosen as the "Sweetheart of G.A.A."

G.A.A. is a club organized for girls interested in athletics. The club offers after-school sports for all girls in high school. Recently the girls have formed an organized cheering section at the basketball games. The girls make a very nice looking section wearing their "G" sweaters. The officers of G.A.A. are: Pres., Sharon Rupe; Vice Pres., Mary Rider; Secretary, Caryl Landreth; Treasurer, LaVonne Everest.

This is the first dance sponsored by the G.A.A. If they handle it like their other projects, we can be assured of a successful dance and, with Rupe at the helm, a lot of fun. So gals, get those dates and let's go to the G.A.A. Sweetheart Ball.

The Active F.H.A.

Activity has been the keyword in the F.H.A. Club this month. Among their many activities are those which follow: the planning of their annual dance, the purchasing of a punch bowl set and a tea service, the selling of hot dogs at the games and having guest speakers at their meetings.

The chapter has made the purchase of a punch bowl, 48 glasses and a tea service set. The punch bowl will be rented out at rental fee of one dollar per night.

They have selected April 24 as the date for their annual dance. It is a girl-date-boy affair. Be sure to get your dates now.

At their January 28 meeting they had Mrs. Melva Carson as the guest speaker. She talked on the many activities carried on in the Home Ec. Department at the University and also displayed some gifts which she received from Korea.

Hot dogs will be sold for the benefit of hungry fans at the tournament by the F.H.A.

PRACTICE WORK STARTS

The Office Training class will be minus a few students in the coming weeks. These students will be working afternoons at the First Security Bank and other offices around town in order that they may become better acquainted with the fundamentals of office work.

Each Office Training student will be given a chance to work at one of these offices. They are all thankful for this opportunity to further their business education and would like to thank all the business men who have made this possible.

Bulldogs Split On Road Trip

Traveling to South Idaho for two games the Bulldogs split losing the first contest to Boise JV's 39-47, and winning from Weiser 45-43.

In the Boise contest the Bulldogs couldn't buy a field goal missing lay-ins and other close shots. They fell behind 10-17 at half time. The third frame the Bulldogs pulled within three points, 25-28, but as the final horn sounded they had slipped behind 39-47. Jackson led Boise scoring with 12, while Johnson counted 12 for the Bulldogs.

GHS	5	10	25	39
BHS	9	17	28	47

Traveling to Weiser the Bulldogs played one of their best games of the season winning 45-43. It was a direct contrast of the game the night before.

The Bulldogs started the opening frame hitting the hoop from all angles to run up a 16-9 first quarter lead. The margin slipped to a slim 25-23 half time lead as the Wolverines started to hit from out front.

The third frame the Bulldogs held the lead as it went to a slim one point, 38-37. The final period was all Bulldog as they ran their lead up to seven points only to have it slip down again. Time was against Weiser as the game ended in a 45-43 win for the Bulldogs.

Clabby led game scoring for Weiser with 15 points. Cole led for the Bulldogs with 14 Johnson followed with 11.

Ferdinand Drops Bulldog JV's 37-57

Playing host to the Ferdinand Eagles the Bulldog J.V.'s were stopped 37-57.

The game started out tight with Ferdinand running up a three point half time edge. The second half Ferdinand started hitting from all angles. The Bullpups kept within distanct until the last frame when they fell behind 37-57.

In other games the Bullpups lost to the Greencreek and St. Gertrude's Varsity fives.

In the Greencreek game the Bullpups couldn't get rolling falling behind at the start. The visitors from Greencreek increased their 16-22 half-time lead to a 34-42 win. H. Arzen led Greencreek scoring with 12 while Small and McLaughlin had 10 for the Bullpups.

At St. Gertrude's the Bullpups played a good game. They were behind only four points at all rest periods until the final frame. The host Panthers started to hit to rack up a 62-37 win. Uhlenkott led scoring for St. Gertrude's with 20. Houseladen had 12 for Grangeville.

From the Bench

Quite a lot of basketball is going to be seen around the GHS gym this week. The sub-district/ class B tournament is being played along with a town team tourney.

In the sub-district it promises to be a battle down to the last game. Any of the five competing teams have a chance to take the championship.

It looks like the Bulldogs were underated in the game with the Weiser Wolverines. After Boise JV's had beaten the Bulldogs Weiser grew confident so it stated in their paper. They referred to the Bulldogs as cousins which in sports means an easy touch. Some people still wonder what happened at Boise.

GHS sure has a nice playing floor compared to some of the floors seen on the trip down south. The Bulldogs court may not have a lot of seating space, but, as a playing floor it is hard to beat, and that is what counts.

"Senior Ball 'Unusual'"

In a beautiful setting of soft lights and sunset and sweet music—the Seniors presented their Senior Ball on January 24 in the old gym.

They decorated to the theme song, "Red Sails in the Sunset." Streamers of red and blue crepe paper were used, with occasional gold fans. At one end of the gym was a large chalk picture made by Jane Heron and Bonita Becker. At the other end, over the stairs was an arch decorated in red and blue also. There were gold and green anchors and lifesavers scattered around on the streamers. Some had the names of all the Senior members written on them.

During intermission the theme song was sung by four of the Senior members, Shirley Rhoades, Mary Kay Dufur Doug Woodall and Bill Wagner.

Refreshments were to be served, but the class met with a slight accident, and as a result most of the couples had to go down town for refreshments.

The music for the dance was furnished by the Tick Tock Swingsters. Everyone who attended the dance will agree that it was very good music. The dance was well attended and every one enjoyed themselves.

Patron and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Willey, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wasem, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Todhunter and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Biegert.
